Merchant Response

The merchant asserts that the disputed payment is valid because the purchased item was delivered to the customer in accordance with the order details. The logistics record for order order_TEST1787953865 shows a status of DELIVERED, with BlueDart as the courier, tracking number AWB-953865, and a delivery timestamp of 2026-08-26T21:51:10.161855+00:00. The delivery was made to the shipping address in Koramangala, Bangalore, Karnataka, and proof of delivery is available at the provided POD URL. The CRM data for the same order indicates a single customer support ticket that was closed, in which the customer requested a refund solely on the basis that the color of the item was incorrect. The ticket summary contains no reference to non-delivery or receipt issues. The fraud risk score associated with the transaction is low (0.15), further supporting the legitimacy of the purchase. Based on the confirmed delivery, the absence of any non-delivery complaint, and the low fraud risk assessment, the merchant maintains that the chargeback claim lacks substantive grounds.
